

NATIONAL ACCREDITATION PROGRAM FOR BREAST CENTERS

The Aiello Breast Center Baltimore Washington Medical Center

The Aiello Breast Center at Baltimore Washington Medical Center provides all -encompassing breast care to women throughout the Baltimore Washington Corridor. The center focuses on cancer prevention and early detection, identification of benign disease, diagnosis of breast cancer, cancer therapy and support services.

The center features a multidisciplinary approach with a specific point of entry into the program and ongoing coordination through all phases of screening, diagnosis and treatment. The program's experienced group of specialists includes leaders in the fields of radiology, medical oncology, radiation oncology, and plastic surgery. They work together to meet the needs of each patient. The team specializes in the evaluation and treatment of all types of breast problems and concerns.

The Aiello Breast Center is led by Dr. Cynthia Drogula. Dr. Drogula is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Surgery at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. She received her medical degree from George Washington University and completed a residency in general surgery at George Washington University Medical Center and affiliated hospitals.
